PRESS RELEASE

ISHCCO Participates in Healthy Workplaces Good Practice Exchange Event Brussels | 20–21 May 2025

The International Safety and Health Construction Coordinators Organization (ISHCCO), as an official partner of the Healthy Workplaces Campaign 2023–2025, proudly participated in the Good Practice Exchange Event hosted by the European Agency for Safety and Health at Work \(EU-OSHA\) on 20–21 May in Brussels.

ISHCCO was represented by its President, Evangelitsa Tsoulofta, who received the official Campaign Partner Certificate on behalf of the organization.

The event was opened by Mr. William Cockburn Salazar, Executive Director of EU-OSHA, who highlighted that: “Digital innovation must serve workers—not replace their well-being.”

Keynote speakers included:

- Ms. Li Andersson, Chair of the Committee on Employment & Social Affairs at the European Parliament, highlighted the need to reduce workplace accidents and fatalities through enhanced protection.
- Mr. Mario Nava, Director General for Employment, Social Affairs & Inclusion at the European Commission, who highlighted forthcoming EU directives aimed at improving working conditions and ensuring digital safety.
- Dr. Natalie Lotzmann, Global Head of Health, Safety & Wellbeing at SAP, who presented a corporate perspective on integrating health and dignity into digital work environments.

The event featured two engaging parallel workshops:

- Workshop 1: Practical Examples of AI Applications in OSH – real-world tech driving proactive safety.
- Workshop 2: AI in the Workplace: Legal Foundations & Ethical Considerations – ensuring fairness, transparency, and rights in an AI-driven future.

The core message of the event was clear: “A safe and healthy digital workplace is possible—if we build it together.”
